ABOUT COLIN DRUMMER

I write the songs and I write this blog. I've been playing the guitar since I was four. I've been the bass guitarist for three months - since Brian left the band.

21 Oct @ 02:24

Have you been listening to Southgate FM recently? Nick Rhodes has been playing our CD all week! I'm amazed! He loves us. He hasn't been talking about anyone else. He's played three times tonight! We've been rehearsing a lot lately. We're playing a gig at on Nov 5 @ 9p.m. Come along. It'll be explosive! I've been writing songs all day - I'm exhausted. I've written four new songs.

Passage B (2 points each, 10 points in total)

Read the extract. Fill in the gap with one of the following five choices marked as A, B, C, D, and E and write your answer on the answer sheet.

- A. He had just finished university and was travelling round Greece
- B. Working with three friends, he provided similar information about other destinations.
- C. Any information that was given was usually aimed at rich tourists.
- D. But it wasn't always like that.
- E. Mark and his friends are still involved in the company.

GREECE

Go to any bookshop nowadays and you'll see the shelves full of travel guides.   21  . Thirty years ago, travel guides tended to be full of photos of ruins and museums but with little practical information.   22  . Five star hotels, the best restaurants and similar details of little use to the average backpacker.

One traveller who noticed this problem was Mark Ellingham.   23  . He had taken some guide books with him but wasn't impressed with them. Some were full of historical details and looked like museum brochures. Others told him how he could live cheaply. None of them, though, gave any information on life in Greece - its politics, culture or simply how its people lived. This was what Mark wanted to know about - but there is a limit to how many books you can carry while travelling.

Instead of complaining, Mark decided to write his own book. He wanted it to include details of sights to visit, places to stay (from the cheapest to the most expensive), nightlife, restaurants, transport and what it was like to live in Greece at that time. In short, everything worth knowing.

He had no job at the time and the economic situation in Britain in 1982 meant that it was difficult, even for a graduate, to find something. Even so, it was a risk but the book became an immediate success. This success encouraged Mark to write more.   24  . Now, over 25 years later, there are more than 100 Rough Guides and over 100 authors write for the company which has offices in London and New York.   25  . Today, however, they would be forgiven for taking a rest from the actual writing work and having a holiday, taking along one of their guide books with them, of course.

III. Cloze

Choose the best answer for each blank from the four choices given and write your answer on the Answer Sheet. (2 points each, 10 points in total)

Dear Sara,

How's life at college? I think you're lucky that you're not at home any more. Mark has bought a pet rat! Why a rat? If I 26 _____ a pet, it would be something nice like a dog or a cat but my brother bought a rat. Now he says that it has to run around. Apparently, if rats 27 _____ kept in cages all day, they 28 _____ unhappy. I told him that 29 _____ this rat isn't kept in a cage all day, I will be unhappy!

Anyway, other news. I 30 _____ work this summer -I don't know yet. Jenny knows the owners of a cafe by the sea and they will probably need someone to help in July and August. It's about 80 percent sure so keep your fingers crossed. If I do get the job, I'll live in a flat above the cafe so that will be great.

Hope all is well at university!

Love

Beth
